

Spiritual Beauty

My Darling,

It is wise for you to be the best you can be.
Develop your natural gifts rather than trying to be the ideal proposed in a shifting, ever-changing sea of trends (in fashions, scents, and looks) that must be adopted for acceptance by society's standards of beauty.

There is no ideal model of Spiritual Beauty that is sought after in the world today. I would have you excel in all of the Blessed Arts of Perfection that you may embody. For your Soul has a beauty rare and fragrant, like unto the rose. When tended and cared for, you will flower into the most beautiful being imaginable. For you are truly that which is inside of you.

This passing life will go by so quickly. These fleeting moments when styles and trends seem important will pass away as surely as the sun sets. In time, you will come to know and appreciate the Purity and Beauty of Spirit which you are becoming. These are Treasures which will not tarnish with age.

Do try to spend your time focusing within and nurturing those qualities that bring you Divinity, for they are the Radiant Garment that you will wear when your Soul makes the great transition into a Body of Light. The raiment you will wear will clothe you in Perfect Adoration. No finer garment has ever been made. No fairer scent has ever been refined.

Care not what others may seem to notice, for those with small-minded, shortsighted perceptions only admire the outer garments which fade and tear and turn to dust.

My Darling, I would have you adorned in the Loveliness of Spirit. The Joy which never fades shall crown your Blessed Embodiment as you transcend this world and pass on to the next... on and on through My many Mansions, until you reach My Doorstep in the Central Isle of Paradise.

The Light of the Soul shines brighter than any star. I would have you wear the Glory of Godhood and crown you with the Jewels of Heaven. So be of good cheer and realize that when you endeavor to value the Beauty of Truth and respond to My Spiritual Guidance, you will embark upon a journey that shall bring you the Glorious Liberty of Divine Raiment. You will raise your scepter on high and call forth the Angels and Blessed Spirits who shall light your way.

So beautiful is the Spirit, so infinitely beautiful! Try seeing beyond the mortal frame. Look within and behold the loveliness and perfection of a heart and mind centered on Godhood. A heart and mind clearly expressing the Divine Qualities of Truth, Beauty, and Goodness, blesses all the world and shines on, far into eternity. Be My Beautiful Beloved One, whose Beauty does outshine the Stars of Heaven. Be this for me, My Darling; you are so lovely.
