A note from the author

I would like to tell you just a little bit about my life, so you can know who is bringing forth God's Words in His Own Name. For most of my life, I thought of myself as separate from God. And although I loved Him very much and honored Him, I did not understand where He was. Even though Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is within you," still, I did not realize it. I thought that God lived high off in His heavenly clouds looking down over me. It did not occur to me that He was here within me all the time.

When I was sixteen years of age, I experienced death. I must have been poisoned, because I became so violently ill that I did not have the strength to stand or walk. My sister carried me up the stairs and laid me in my bed. I wretched and dry heaved until I became so weak I couldn't move at all. The pain and sickness were unbearable. And then, everything went black. I saw a spotlight focused on the back of a man's head. Slowly he turned around and I was horrified to see that it was the Devil, and he was laughing at me.

I prayed for Lord Jesus to help me. Suddenly, it seemed as if I were at the bottom of the ocean with a whirlpool sucking me down. I couldn't breathe. I swam, struggling against the current with all my might. It took every ounce of strength I possessed. As I rose, I noticed that the water got stiller towards the top and easier to ascend. Above me, I could see the surface. I swam on until at last, I broke through where I could breathe.

To my astonishment, I kept ascending right up through the peaking waves. I looked down, and in complete surprise, saw what I had believed to be the ocean was the atmosphere of Earth. I had risen above it into space. I could see the whole world below me. It was infinitely beautiful to behold. I looked towards the sun and it was magnificent, so brilliant! Then I saw, in the far distance, two beautiful Angels shining brighter than the sun. They were flying towards me. A thrill of joy went through me as I thought, "They are going to take me to God." How beautiful they looked. They were the most beautiful beings I had ever seen, and yet, I didn't even have eyes to see. I didn't have a body at all, just a point of consciousness that could behold all the wonder and beauty around me.

When I started out towards them, I heard a Great Voice within me saying, "Wait there. You do not understand how it is." The Voice was kind, compassionate, infinitely loving, neither male nor female, pure, all-powerful, yet gentle... a Voice that seemed to come from the heart of eternity.

As the Angels came closer they spoke, and their words rang all around me and through me. "It is your Father's will," they said, "that you return to Earth. There is something of utmost importance that must be done during your lifetime, something that only you can do." I thought to myself, "Who, me? What could I possibly do that could make a difference?" And then it dawned on me, "Oh, they must have a case of mistaken identity. They have confused me with someone else, someone important."

The Angels said, “Do you want to do your Fathers will?” I felt disappointed, because I really wanted to be with God more than anything. Yet, there was no way to argue with a question like that. “Yes,” I thought. “I do want to do my Father’s will.” And, as I resigned myself to His will, I suddenly sped through the atmosphere until I came to a stop, hovering just above my house.

I had super vision and super hearing! I saw my friend asleep in his bed through the rooftop of his house, three houses away. I could hear his dog breathing. In awe, I began to look around. Then I heard the Angels again; “Do you want to do your Father’s will?”

As I thought, “Yes,” I descended through my rooftop, hovering near the ceiling above my dead body. Surprisingly, I was repulsed by it. Although I had enjoyed my life, I had no desire to go back into that cold lump of flesh. Then, I heard the Angels asking me again, “Do you want to do your Father’s will?” And as I thought, “Yes,” I suddenly flew into my body. I was stuck, and it felt as if I weighed a thousand pounds, considering a few moments earlier I had the freedom of weightlessness. I was tired, so very tired, but I thanked Jesus because the sickness was gone and I was safe.

What I had been brought back to Earth for, my mission, was to bring God’s Words to you now, so you may feel the direct personal experience of His Divine Love. It is God’s Will that people everywhere receive the benefit of His Divine Guidance, so everyone can experience the peace, the blessed abundance, and absolute joy of Heaven on Earth now.

I focused on God a lot through my life, and He has spoken to me occasionally, always with miraculous consequences. My life was spared on numerous occasions, from horrific car crashes to attempted murder. By listening to God's Guidance, I have overcome many seeming tragedies and recovered from crippling connective tissue disease. When doctors gave me no hope of recovery from an autoimmune disease that landed me in a wheelchair, I was led by God's Unerring Guidance to a remarkable recovery. I have endured many broken bones, including a broken back, and all these have healed completely. When I was healing, I had more time to focus on improving my spiritual life, so I made God my full-time job.

In 1991 I focused on Him five to seven hours each day for nine months. Each morning I hiked up a remote sea cliff an hour before dawn. There I sat in God-Contemplation* for an hour before sunrise. Every day I felt His Divine Love and experienced ultimate peace. I reached the breathless state and experienced cosmic consciousness. God always opened my eyes the exact moment the sun began to rise, so I could behold His Light. Dolphins gathered by the hundreds in the sea below me.

Motionless, they floated, their dorsal fins rising above the surface of the water. Then, when I rose and stretched forth my hands to bless them, they would all jump at once, spinning with glee. Beyond them, families of great Humpback whales gathered, and closer in to the shore, ancient sea turtles clustered together below me. Above me, giant albatross' circled overhead, while my horse and little dog stood at attention before me. They all lined up for my blessing, for they loved receiving the gift of God's Pure Energy. I spoke aloud, blessing the creatures of the air, the land, and the sea. Then my blessing also reached out to you, flowing all around the world, gracing every person and all life everywhere.

Earlier, in 1981, Jesus had come to me in Spirit. He said, "I want to come through you." Thinking that He wanted to be born into the world again, I got pregnant that very month. I gave birth to a son, whom I called Jesse Kuhio Kalani (which means, God's gracious gift, a prince of Heaven). Jesse is, indeed, heaven sent. He is so filled with nurturing love and helpful wisdom that at Hana grade school, his class made up a special award, to honor him for being the most caring and sharing child in his school. But, ten years later, in 1991, when I was blessing all the world, Jesus came to me again, exactly as He had in the past. Again He said, "I want to come through you." Confused, I said, "I gave birth to Jesse so you could walk the earth again." Then Jesus said with extra emphasis on the last word this time, "I want to come through YOU."

When God asked me to be His emissary, I was worried that I wasn't good enough, or pious enough, or serious enough. I was always kidding around, so I thought that I'd better change my demeanor. Then He told me not to change a thing. He said, "Be light and joyful. Your laughter is especially loved by Me, and the Angels adore it." He said He loved me just the way I was and that when anything needed to be changed in me, He would make the changes.

In 1978, I asked God to take care of my financial needs so that I could work for Him full time, and He has provided for me in many surprising ways. God has also given me the ability to heal others, from migraine headaches to depression. He asked me to write about the miracles He brought into my life during Our Adventures Together, which is the subject of my forthcoming autobiography. Working for God through the years, I have written two screenplays and have compiled manuscripts for fifteen books thus far. Writing was hard for me, for I had to overcome both dyslexia and being an atrocious speller.

When I took the screenplay I had written for God to Hollywood, I met Gene Roddenberry, who offered me the opportunity to have a starring role, as a very spiritual, celibate alien in his first movie, "Star Trek, the Motion Picture." But, following God's Guidance, I turned him down, as well as an opportunity to star in the screenplay I had written. Saying no to these opportunities was the hardest test for me; but God had a greater career planned for me: a life devoted only to Him, far away from the distractions of the fast-paced, worldly, city life, where I could become divine by focusing my attention on God alone. He showed me a vision of a beautiful paradise, a pristine beach where the sun rose from the sea with a hillside pasture for my horse, SunDancer. So I moved to Kauai and after some searching, found the promised land.

In 1996, God asked me to record His Words for the new millennium verbatim. He asked me to bring a little hand held recorder when I came to commune with Him, rather than later trying to remember what I thought I had heard Him say. God also asked me to change my name to I AM. It was challenging, because I felt people would scrutinize me, or think I was crazy, or judge me as being egotistical for claiming I was God. Oh, how I wished He had asked me to build an ark instead... (not that I could have!) But now, I am happy that I did change my name and I know He's happy too, because every time I meet someone in His Name, I AM, the conversation always leads straight to God.

I AM is God, because the Great I AM is alive and conscious in everything, as everything. Every one of us is divinely blessed to be part of God's unfolding miracle of love and life. I feel so reverent to know that I am part of God, that His very Spirit is at the core of my being, that He talks to me, and guides me, and gives me His Divine Love. Now He wants to do that for you too.

People often ask me how I hear God. When I was younger, talking to God was like a one-way telephone conversation. I did all the talking and then hung up with a reverent “Amen.” One day, I was inspired to listen. I decided to still my thoughts. It is impossible to think our own thoughts and hear God’s Thoughts at the same time, because He will never intrude upon our thoughts. And so, I had to really focus on listening and not let any thoughts come to mind. It was hard at first. Sometimes He would only give me one word and I would have to wait for ten minutes to get the next one. And then, when I got a word wrong, one I thought He was going to say, or a thought came to mind getting in the way, He would stop. Then I would have to go back and see where I had gotten it wrong and begin again. He was very careful not to let me get any words wrong.

At our core, every one of us refers to ourselves as I am, though usually in the context of “I am hungry,” or “I am full.” God created us in His Image and His Divine Spirit lives in us, as us. When we seek His Inner Guidance and choose to do His Will, we become godly. By contemplating God’s Divine Nature and feeling Divine Love, we eventually become divine personalities who identify with God’s Holy Spirit, rather than thinking what we have been taught to believe, which is that we are ego based identities, unworthy of and separate from God.

When we experience a divine merger with God's Indwelling Spirit, we are elevated to the joyous throne of Heaven within. There, we celebrate a Divine Marriage of Sacred Spirit, and become Temples of the Most High Living God!

I have aligned my will with His Will, and my soul is filled with His Holy Spirit. I realize that I AM God's Living Temple. I have invited Him to speak up whenever He likes. Now, He wants to speak through me, to everyone on Earth.

At the burning bush, when God asked Moses to free His enslaved people, Moses asked God, "Who shall I say has sent me?" God replied, "I AM." Moses didn't understand, so God repeated, "I AM that I AM." But God could not get through the rigid constructs of Moses' ingrained beliefs. Moses could only conceive of God as Jehovah: angry, jealous, and wrathful. He was, to Moses, the God of the fiery volcano, who vented while Moses delivered the Ten Commandments to the Hebrews. That is the reason there are so many conflicting views of God's nature within Biblical scriptures. Jesus knew Moses' interpretation of God's nature was incorrect, so He taught that the One True God, whose name is I AM, is our loving Heavenly Father who resides in the Heaven within our hearts. Jesus said, "The Kingdom of God is within you."

Jesus realized God's presence within Himself and received God's Divine Love and Guidance directly. He spoke God's thoughts, proclaiming, “I AM the light of the world.” He tried to explain to people, saying, “These things I tell you, I say not of myself. It is the Father within me that doeth the works.” But, unless people have had a firsthand experience of God within themselves, it is a very hard concept to understand, especially when they have been taught to believe that God is a mighty fearful Deity that lives somewhere else. Believing it was heresy and blasphemy to profess union with God, many people thought Jesus was egotistically speaking about himself, and so, misunderstood His teachings and condemned Him. Jesus said that we are all sons and daughters of God. Yet after His death, people who didn’t really understand what Jesus was trying to say wrote the Bible. Consequently, they referred to “God’s chosen people” as being the Hebrews exclusively. In fact, all people are God’s people and for those who are enslaved, God always does His best to inspire someone to set them free.

God wants each and every one of us to have an intimate love-relationship with Him. It is possible for you also to merge with Him and develop your power to heal yourself and others. Jesus said, “These things and greater things shall ye do also.” Let us prove Him right by creating Heaven on Earth now in this new millennium, for “God’s Kingdom will come, when His Will is done, on Earth as it is in Heaven.”
